Ramssol announces hybrid workforce solutions Feet's 2.0

CYBERJAYA: RAMSSOL Group Bhd (Ramssol), an innovative, digital human capital management (HCM) solutions provider in Southeast Asia announced the availability of Feet's 2.0, the next progressive step in creating an inclusive employee engagement platform that addresses the gaps and demands of a multi-generational workforce.

Ramssol's introduction of Feet's 2.0 adds a layer of productivity to enhance the user experience and cultivate an effective workforce that can adapt to rapidly changing demands. Integrating AI-based 'Happy Technology' into its core, the mobile-ready employee engagement platform aims to disrupt industry norms and offer a robust, inclusive solution tailored to the needs and wants of today's organisations.

For better accessibility and inclusivity in the HR landscape, Feet's 2.0 is now available for download for free via major app stores. This will allow seamless and flexible collaborations between employers and employees.

The event was held virtually and attended by Ramssol group managing director & chief executive officer Clement Tan, non-independent executive director & chief information officer Brian Liew along with representatives from MDEC, Zoom and many of the company's clients and valued business partners.

Commenting on the improvements Feet's 2.0 brings to the employee engagement space, Tan said, "Feet's is a culmination of our years' worth of research and development, and is a game-changer in creating a comprehensive, cohesive, and unified platform for today's workforce."

"During this period of uncertainty and remote working, mental health and meaningful relationships at the workplace need to be prioritised. We believe that all companies should have the opportunity to revolutionise the HR experience. Hence, we decided to make Feet's 2.0 available for free to empower companies to enhance employee engagement."

The improvements have been methodically implemented to create a seamless and comprehensive solution to

HCM. Feet's 2.0 is built around five key features that exemplify Ramssol's commitment to creating next-gen, fit-for-future solutions for corporations, SMEs, and start-ups looking to redefine real-time employer-employee relationships.

"We extend our heartiest congratulations to Ramssol Group on the launch of Feet's 2.0. It gives us immense pride to see local Malaysians MNCs like Ramssol Group putting Malaysia on the map with innovative solutions that will pave the future of how work will be conducted with focus on people, a company's most valuable asset," said Malaysia Digital Economy Corporation (MDEC) Investment and Brand senior vice president Raymond Siva.

Feet's 2.0 builds on the already successful employee engagement platform that HR teams can use to manage and build a productive working environment.
